

CONTENTS

WatchTime, July-August 2008

COVER STORY

108 INSIDE IWC

Still anchored by its original workshop in Schaffhausen, 140-year-old IWC is expanding its watchmaking operations and increasing its production of in-house calibers.

WATCH TESTS

118 LEONARDO UNDER THE LOUPE

WatchTime takes a close look at the new IWC Da Vinci Vintage.

132 ANTIMAGNETIC ATTRACTION

The updated version of the 1950s Rolex Milgauss is already a hit. Is this re-engineered classic, with its improved protection against magnetism, worth the wait?

FEATURES

50 PATRIZZI RIDES AGAIN

Antiquorum founder and now nemesis Osvaldo Patrizzi is starting a rival watch-auction company.

54 CONNOISSEURS: THE COMEBACK KID

The riches-to-rags-to-riches journey of investment banker Alexander Cappello and the great watch collections he built along the way

BASEL/GENEVA REPORT

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM THE BASELWORLD AND SIHH WATCH FAIRS

64 "WE'RE NUMBER 2!"

With buying power shifting to Asia, the United States is no longer alpha dog on the global watch scene.

- 72 THE NEW WATCHES
Part II of WatchTime's survey of the fresh faces introduced at Baselworld and SIHH
- 104 UNDER ITS OWN POWER
With the debut at Baselworld of its first in-house movement, Carl F. Bucherer has achieved manufacture status.

DEPARTMENTS & COLUMNS

- 14 EDITOR'S LETTER
  - 22 READERS' FORUM
  - 26 WATCHTALK
Longines serves up its Andre Agassi watch, auction prices defy gravity, LVMH bags Hublot for half-a-billion dollars, and more
  - 40 WATCH QUIZ
Timing is everything, especially in the Olympics.
  - 42 FINE CARS
A review of the new Buick Enclave
  - 44 FINE PENS
China's red star is rising in the luxury-pen galaxy.
  - 46 FINE SPIRITS
Tasting France's legendary Pinot Noirs
  - 48 FINE CIGARS
Examining the appeal of Connecticut wrapper
  - 144 FACE TIME
A photo mélange of readers and their watches
  - 146 LAST MINUTE
The meaning of DeWitt's new WX1 watch
- ON THE COVER:
The Portuguese Tourbillon Mystère in white-gold case from IWC Schaffhausen. Photo by Nik Schölzel